

TEXTBOOKS AND SUPPLIES

Books supplied to the students are loaned, not given, and parents are expected to accept full responsibility for the proper care and return of books issued to their children. Grade cards and end-of-year reports will be withheld for missing books and/or money owed to the school.

Students are expected to have paper and pencils at all times. If these items are not brought from home, they may be purchased at school from the supply cart.